EMPORIA TOOK THE SECOND GAME

The Visitors Played An' Error less Game Yesterday.

EXCITING EXHIBITION TO-DAY

Which Nine Will Win Two Out of Three is the Question Now Being Asked.

In a game that was made conspicuous by the absence of errors, Emporia won from the Brownies at Broad Street Park called out by Umpire Daniel Hogan, the grand stand was in doubl as to who would take the second of the series. To-day's contest will decide which nine is to the best newd out of the three was the artist who put the kinks in the sphere for the visitors yesterday, and although he was found for nine times, the Brownies lost because they made

One-Two-Three Order.

The Emporia aggregation went out in he one-two-three order in the first, bit allied in the second inning. Rawlings in he second dropped one down to Gruner alled to head of the first, and croaked, Eanes sent one that Gruner alled to handle on the throw and got lee. Nunn pasted one of the throw and got lee. Nunn pasted one one right on he trade-mark and it went for the free rountry. Eanes tore the sand up coming teross the home plate. Wyche (it's not ronounced Witch) ozoned.

The third inning changed the appearance of things and gave the Brownies a cad. McLeavy and Hulcher had taken he cemetery road, when Bowers came to get for the second time. He ngain smote, lose put one to the tall grass in right farden, and shortly afterwards sw.ped he second sack. Sharp swung at two of hem and then connected. The left fielder was playing in for a short fly and was wo runs came over. Eacho skimmed nee to the third sacker and he died at irst sack.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., August 17.—Allegng that Gus Orndorff and his wife, Sa-Une Oredorff, who live in this county had threatened to scald the eyes out of the head of their twelve-year-old daugh Aden, N. C., hurt about the fact and his left eye apparently put out; Dinks Smith, of Venable, N. C., injured about the body and hardly able to walk; Alf. Braxton, of Greenville, legs injured and cut about the body; William Harris, of Greenville, N. C., dislocated arm and shoulder; Manson Marable, of Greenville, head badly cut and suffering from shock; James Allen, of Newark, N. J., who had been visiting in Kinston, cut on the head, but not seriously. ter, W. R. Wilson and wife, Fannie Wil-Judge Thomas W. Harrison, requiring the defendants to produce the body of the girl in court in Winchester Saturday next. The girl's name is Jessie Wilson and she is said to be strikingly pretty. The netitioners alleged that they have been informed from time to time of the beasting, of young Milton Orndorff, the son, that he attempted to assault Jessie, and that he perpetrated upon the child's person certan revolting acts. They also allege that their daughter was morelessly whipped by Cleve Orndorff, another son. According to the prayor of the petitioners, they were married in 1892, and lived together until five years ago, when they quarreled. Their four children were divided, and Jessie was turned over to the Orndorffs to be in their charge. Wilson and his wife allege that their daughter was treated with brutality, overwork and irregularly schooled, and that she is Being illegally detained by the Orndorffs. The latter are referred to in the petition as "The Orndorff Tribo" and as "Intolerant and iron-handed captors." Mrs. Orndorff, they alleged, has repeatedly threatened to scald the eyes out of their daughter, and Wilson says that he recently worked near the Orndorff home and that he was not allowed to speak to his child.

The Wilsons and Orndorffs are well known, and the affair has created a tremendous sensation. Judge Harrison will incar the case next Saturday.
